

The Gold Coast Hindu Cultural Association

Navarathri 2014 Invitation

The GCHCA Navaratri Festival is an annual cultural event organised by the association. The evening will include performances by various prominent South Asian artistes in South East Queensland, followed by a vegetarian dinner.

Navaratri is a festival of worship, dance and music which is celebrated over a period of nine nights to honour the three main goddesses of Hinduism - Parvathi, Lakshmi and Saraswathi. It is considered the most auspicious period in the Hindu calendar and is celebrated by Hindu communities from all regions of the Indian Sub-Continent.

Event: Navarathri Cultural Celebration

Date: 4 October 2014 (Saturday)

Time: 5:45 pm for 6:00 pm start (for a 2 hour program).

Venue: Nerang Bicentennial Community Centre (833 Southport-Nerang Road, Nerang) Gold Coast. (Map: <http://alturl.com/xmzos>)

We hope you can make it!

Prof. Thiru Aravinthan, Director of Cultural Affairs, GCHCA

The Gold Coast Hindu Cultural Association (GCHCA)
gchcan@gmail.com
<http://GoldCoastHindu.org>

“Support the noble objectives of the GCHCA by becoming a Member for Life”

For Free Tickets:

<http://alturl.com/7tifu>